PHARR INTERNATIONAL BRIDGE BOARD MEMBER BIO

Adalberto Campero
SECRETARY OF THE BOARD

Adalberto Campero serves as the Secretary of the Pharr International Bridge Board, where he ensures the board operates efficiently and in full compliance with the City of Pharr's regulations. With over 30 years of experience across the transportation, warehousing, and customs industries in both the U.S. and Mexico, Adalberto brings deep expertise in supply chain management to the board.

Throughout his career, Adalberto has successfully expanded operations to include 12 locations across the U.S. and Mexico, offering trade services in sectors such as automotive, manufacturing, consumer goods, construction supplies, and food industries. His expertise spans U.S. and Mexican customs brokerage, warehousing, distribution, foreign trade zone facilities, and cross-border transportation across North America.

As a board member for over 10 years, Adalberto has contributed significantly to the bridge's strategic development. He represents Pharr at prominent events, including the Texas International Produce Association (TIPA) and the Annual Produce Manufacturers Convention (PMA). Additionally, he serves on the Board of the Laredo Motor Carriers Association, where he collaborates with industry experts to address import/export challenges along the U.S.-Mexico border.

Adalberto's ability to explain complex supply chain dynamics in practical terms helps city officials understand the impact of operational decisions on trade and logistics. This unique insight supports the board's efforts to strengthen cross-border commerce and improve the efficiency of the Pharr Port of Entry.

Beyond his professional achievements, Adalberto enjoys hunting, fishing, morning CrossFit, and spending quality time with his family. Guided by the philosophy to "Keep moving forward," he is committed to helping the City of Pharr grow both economically and as a vibrant, family-friendly community. His dedication to excellence and passion for fostering commerce underscore his ongoing contributions to the success of the Pharr International Bridge.
